In Gleissner's. this lesson to-day, we see the end of the courses of conduct that Israel pursued. The historian tells of how they went in the face of light that should have led they had been warned, and the consequences of such conduct had been most clearly set before them. Yet all was Mo. vain. They did everything that others did, and went to extremes of wickedness. They actually practiced human sacrifices, and burnt their sons and daughters at the shrines of Moloch.

Nothing was too vile for them to adopt. Notwithstanding all this, the Lord had patience with them, and waited for years before He brought the full penalty of their sins on their He tried to win them back to their former allegiance, and for that purpose sent them prophet after hearts, and stiffened their necks, and

There are at the present moment causes at work in your class that will inevitably produce certain results. This is true in the case of each scholar. This boy, if he keeps on in his present course, will at last fill a drunkard's grave. That boy, if he persists in pushing ahead, will end in the penitentiary. "Castoria is an excellent medicine for children. Mothers have repeatedly told me of its good effect upon their children."

Da. G. C. Osgood,

"Castoria is the best remedy for children of which I am acquainted. I hope the day is not far distant when mothers will consider the real interest of their children, and use Castoria instead of the various quack nostrums which are destroying their loved ones, by forcing opium, morphine, soothing symp and other hurtful agents down their throats, thereby sending them to premature graves."

Conway, Ark.

"Castoria is so well adapted to children that I recommend it as superior to any prescription known to me."

H. A. ARCHER, M. D., 111 So. Oxford St., Brooklyn, N. Y.

"Our physicians in the children's department have spoken highly of their experience in their outside practice with Castoria, and although we only have among our medical supplies what is known as regular products, yet we are free to confess that the merits of Castoria has won us to look with favor upon it."
